

AX Holdings rewards 525 years of loyal service – 8th July 2009

The AX Holdings Long Service Awards were recently held at Seashells Resort at Suncrest in Qawra, in which 35 employees received recognition for an aggregate total of 525 years of loyal service with the Group. The ceremony was followed by a reception.

In a brief speech during the presentation AX Holdings chairman, Angelo Xuereb expressed his appreciation to all employees with special emphasis on those who had given 25 years of service to the Group. He thanked them all for their loyalty and augured them more long years of fruitful employment.

Mr Xuereb presented each with a certificate together with a personalised gift. The two longest serving employees namely Robert Gatt and Anthony Zahra employed at Hard Rocks Ltd were given an engraved silver plated plaque in recognition for their 25 years of service.

This Long Service Awards ceremony is held in recognition of long service given by employees from the various companies that form the Group, namely, AX Construction, AX Holdings Head Office, Hard Rocks, Sunny Coast Holiday Resorts, The Palace and The Victoria hotels, and the Seashells Resort at Suncrest.
