

New Appointments at AX Holdings

Caption: Denise Xuereb and Nicholas Saliba

AX Holdings Ltd has recently announced two new appointments, Nicholas Saliba to the post of Group Administration and Human Resources Manager and Ms Denise Xuereb as Administration Executive.

Nicholas Saliba will be taking over the management and development of the administrative function of AX Holdings and its subsidiary companies.

For the past 12 years Mr Saliba was employed by Corinthia Hotels International – Malta & Overseas. His background in the Hospitality Industry has furnished him with a wealth of experience which spans various departments, from Operations to Human Resources and Training and Development.

Ms Denise Xuereb will be assisting Mr Saliba in the management of the administrative function of AX Holdings and its subsidiary companies. Her role will include the areas of Public Relations, IT Support Services, Public Dealings, Project Evaluation and Investor Relations.

Ms Xuereb is a Management graduate and has already worked at the Suncrest Hotel and the Victoria Hotel. She was also involved in The Palace Hotel project on behalf of AX Construction.